

ARTWALK

Friday, September 17, 2010

6-9 PM

Scooter Gallery 206-547-7400 from 10 AM-6PM

www.scootergalleryseattle.com

5214 University Way NE

Presenting: Boe Oddisey, Henry Deposit, and Mi Ae Lipe

Medium: multiple

Description: Boe Oddisey creates colorful and whimsical mixed-media work from recycled and found materials the convey his love for bright colors and interesting textures. Henry Deposit's "Artifact #1" is a sculptural installation that comments on our decaying American infrastructure. Mi Ae Lipe presents dishwasher safe dinnerware with drawings of an imagined and real menagerie in vibrant colors and fine detail. panels by Bo Oddisey and oil paintings by Scott Prentice.

Artist: Boe Oddisey
Showing at Scooter Gallery

Artist: Eva Dillner
Showing at Indigo Fusion Spa & Gallery

Indigo Fusion Spa & Gallery (206) 910-6460

4714 University Way NE

Presenting: Eva Dillner

Medium: acrylic paintings on canvas

Description: Abstract art to stir the imagination. What do you see as you meditate on each painting?
www.divinedesign.nu

Starbucks on the Ave/North 206-634-1390

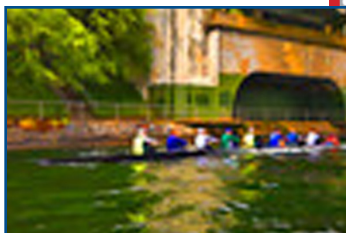

4555 University Way NE

Presenting: Emo Fitzmorris

Medium: Digital Paintings

Description: "The World of If?" A Psychedelic Day Dream of Digital Paintings and Surrealistic Photography that entices viewers to question the lines between reality and imagination.

Artist: Art Kuntz
Showing at
University Business Center

University Business Center 206-829-2400

www.theuniversitybusinesscenter.com

4500 9th Ave NE

Presenting: Art Kuntz

Medium: fine art prints

Description: "Puget Sound Boating" - the artist begins with one of his photographs, manipulates the image digitally, and produces beautiful, colorful, intriguing prints. Opening Day here in Seattle predominates the show. Reception; artist in attendance

Artist & Craftsman Supply 206-545-0091

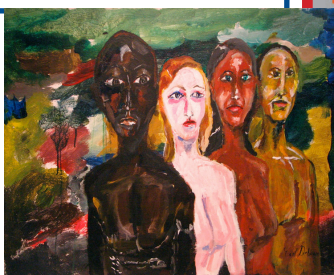

www.artistcraftsman.com

4350 8th Ave NE

Presenting: several

Medium: PROVAIL and Creative Activities/VSA of Washington present works by their clients and the resident artists of the Seattle Center Artists Studio. The show highlights the diversity of styles, mediums and perspectives created by artists with disabilities living in Seattle. Come experience their unique and stimulating stories. For information about their programs, visit: Provail.org and VSArts.org

Artist: Earl Debnam
"Harmoniously"
Showing at Artist & Craftsmans

Artist: Leslie Broadgate
Showing at University Inn

University Inn 206-632-5055

www.universityinnseattle.com

4140 Roosevelt Way NE

Presenting: Leslie Broadgate <http://glbroadgate.com>

Medium: paintings

Description: inspiration from textiles, textures, shadows, antique stores, antiques, graffiti, her children, the thrift store, nature, thoughts, movies, living and certainly, other artists

Tully's 206-527-2373

4700 University Way NE

Presenting: Jerry Minor

Medium: Paintings

Description: Jerry Minor is an Ohio born artist living and working in the Seattle area. His preferred medium is watercolor and he still works with the traditional tools of the artist which he refers to as a "hank of hair, bit of bone". He has been called one of the finest neo-romantic artists working today. He will be showcasing his most recent explorations in Mythology and the Tarot Major Arcana.

Artist: Jerry Minor
Showing at Tullys

Gargoyles Statuary 206-632-4940

www.gargoylestatuary.com

4550 University Way NE

Presenting: Lis Wright Ivec

Medium: paintings and pastels

Description: "Into the Dark Time" works inspired by our current transition into the dark time of year. We will also be featuring a presentation by Bad Dog Hats, Steam Punk, Victorian, classic top hats, mini top hats, and hair clips for both men & women—mini fashion show.

Artist: Lis Wright Ivec
Showing at Gargoyles

Café Allegro 206-633-3030

www.cafeallegromusic.com

4214 University Way NE (east alley entrance)

Present: Elderwise and live music by Gary Cance

Media: Paintings (and live music)

Description: "Elderwise" is a local artist's collective of elderly artists who do an annual showing at Café Allegro. Their art is displayed all around the café. There will be live music from 7-10pm.

